Legislative Craft Now ing Ahead Under Full Sail

Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—Sentiment of Summit county, today that if any member of the legislature introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of the rubber companies in Akron, he would be a measure demanding investigation of the activities of the rubber companies of the world and paper league operating in the Green in a speech that he believed the audience to call a halt to the proceedings of the rubber companies. He attacked the Senator of Akron for the latter's action to the probe, declaring that nothing was wrong with the law, but that the law was being used to the disadvantage of the rubber companies.

Senator Potting tried to force the bill, but was ruled out of order. He then moved to amend the bill, but was also ruled out of order. He then moved to amend the bill, but was also ruled out of order. He then moved to amend the bill, but was also ruled out of order.

TAFT AND SENATE AT LOGGERHEADS

Resulting in a Situation Dangerous to Country's Best Interests.

Washington, Feb. 25.—As a result of the senate's refusal to confirm President Taft's diplomatic nominations, the United States government finds itself in a position of extreme isolation. The situation is dangerous to the country's best interests. The senate's refusal to confirm the nominations is a direct challenge to the president's authority. BEST CHIEF SUSPENDED BY BAKER

"GOLDEN RULE" KOH- LER, OF CLEVELAND POLICE

Faces Charges Filed With the Civil Service Com- mission.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 25.—Cleveland's "Golden Rule" chief of police, Fred Kohler, who was styled the "best chief" in the United States by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, today was suspended by Mayor Newton D. Baker. It is understood that he was first given an opportunity to resign. Subsequently, charges attacking Kohler's conduct were filed with the civil service commission.

CASE AGAINST HICKOK DISMISSED

Prosecuting Witness Failed to Press Charges Against Well Known Engineer.

The case against Remben Hickok, the L. E. W. engineer who was arrested last Friday evening on a charge of adultery, preferred by Jacob Zapp, was dismissed this morning when the complaining witness failed to prosecute the charge. A similar charge preferred against his wife was withdrawn last Saturday morning.

Hickok appeared before the mayor this morning as he had agreed, and entered a plea of not guilty. When the prosecuting witness failed to put in an appearance, the case was dismissed. The well known engineer still bore the marks of the beating he received last Friday night when he was caught at his home with his wife last Friday afternoon.

JUSTICE APPEARS BEFORE JUSTICE.

In the court of Justice of the Peace B. H. Holmes this morning, William Justice was arraigned on the charge of non-support. This was in consequence of an action that was brought against him by the Allen County Human Society through its agent, Mr. Smiley. The defendant pleaded not guilty to the charge, and his case was set for hearing on Monday. Justice is the father of five children, all minors.

TOO OLD TO ENLIST IN THE CIVIL WAR; MAN DIES AT 108

Lebanon, Pa., Feb. 25.—Although he was refused enlistment in the Civil War because of advanced age, Samuel Nevin died yesterday. He was 108 years old last September and is survived by nine children, 37 grand children, 51 great grand children and two great great grand children. He was born in 1804 in Strasburg, Pa. in which is now Schuylkill county. Nevin claimed to have cast his first vote for John Quincy Adams for president. His son Harrison, who is 70 years old, served through the Civil War.

NEED LIMA BEANS TO COMPLETE MENU A LA NIGHTMARE.

New York, Feb. 25.—Every year the Canadian camp at its annual dinner here tries to outdo all previous efforts in getting odd things to eat. At the eleventh annual dinner last night a group made from a species of starfish from Manila, a Vancouver bear pie, a dozen brace of grouse from Scotland, a salad made of strange tropical herbs, wild meat from New Brunswick and sea cucumbers from the Philippine islands were among the specialties which members of the camp contributed to the feast.

TWO LOBBYING REGISTER.

Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—In compliance with the new anti-lobby law, two more lobbyists registered with the secretary of state today and paid their fee of three dollars. They were M. A. Nash, of Cincinnati, and W. R. Wilson, of Columbus, representing the Motion Picture League of America.

TAFT WILL SEE ENTERTAINMENT BY PAGE BOYS.

Washington, Feb. 25.—After a wrangle that lasted several days the page boys of the senate and house finally have decided to give an entertainment next Sunday evening in a local theatre at which President Taft and many prominent senators and representatives already have promised to be present. The youngsters are organized under the name of the National Fraternity of Pages of the United States Congress and funds derived from the entertainment are to be utilized for providing headquarters for their organization.

OLD DAVE DUNLAP ON LAST LAP HAS HIDE LIKE BURLAP

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 25.—"Here's my old hide if it will do any good," said Dave Dunlap, 83 years old, when he stepped yesterday his skin to save the life of 5 year old John Shaw, who was burned a month ago and whose recovery physicians declare can only be effected through a skin grafting operation. Dunlap said the lad's life was worth more than his own and he was willing to undergo the operation, but the doctors declared it would be useless as the old man's skin would not heal properly on the boy.

A. B. C. FOLL FEST INCLUDES PRIZES AND SOME SCANDAL

Toledo, O., Feb. 25.—The first visiting bowler will go on the drives at the Toledo Terminal Auditorium where the big A. B. C. tournament is in progress, when H. Bloom, of Sandusky, will roll off his singles on number nine alley this afternoon. The remainder of the bowlers, as on the previous days will be the Toledo men, two squads of doubles being booked early in the afternoon, to be followed by four shifts of singles until 8:20 p. m. At night 16 more Toledo five-man teams will compete. Much interest has been excited in the work of Fred Merkle, Giant first sacker, who bowled three consistent games in his five-man event last night.

BOXING BOUTS AT SPRINGFIELD.

Springfield, O., Feb. 25.—Two bouts will be given Thursday evening, February 27, at the Fairbanks Theatre in this city under the auspices of the Home City Athletic Club. In the main go, Kid Clark of Columbus and Glenn Coakley of Fort Wayne will box 2 rounds. Pat McIntyre of Cleveland will referee the bout. In the semi-wind-up, Eddie Ketchel of Grand Rapids and Terry Nelson of Chattanooga, Tenn., will go ten rounds, weighing in at 133 pounds. Both of these boys are handy with the mitts and fast on foot and the bouts will be worth seeing. Large delegations of out of town sports have already made reservations for the ring side seats. Coakley and Clark were to have met several weeks ago before a Queen City club but the bout was called off on account of the sickness of Clark who was unable to appear. Both of them have been seen in action in this city and they have a large following of the sports of this city. Tickets can be reserved by wiring the Home City Athletic Club.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 25.—Open competition between the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific railroads, the two great component parts of the Harriman system and no favors from one to the other because of their past connection, are the only terms under which the California state railroad commission will approve the steps now being taken in compliance with the United States Supreme Court for dissolution.

GENERAL ROSALIE WOULD CONVERT CARDINAL GIBBONS.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 25.—Cardinal Gibbons received the suffragan army of the Hudson in audience today and was presented with a "votes for women" flag by "General Rosalie Jones," who also expressed the hope that the cardinal would join them in their fight for women's rights. The cardinal willingly accepted the banner but declined to commit himself as to the cause his rational advocated.

Sydney, N. S. W., Feb. 25.—Another was added to the list of Antarctic tragedies by the news received here today of the death of two members of the expedition commanded by Dr. Douglas Mawson. The party left Tasmania in 1911, accompanied by a large body of scientific men to explore thoroughly the regions around the southern magnetic pole. Once again the British army is affected by the loss of a brilliant officer, Lieutenant P. E. S. Ninnis, of the famous Royal Fusiliers Regiment. He was a close friend of Captain Lawrence Oates of the ill-fated expedition who perished while returning from the south pole with Scott. Switzerland also has suffered a great loss by the death of Dr. Metz, a prominent scientist and sportsman. After winning the ski jumping championship in Switzerland in 1908, he offered his services to Dr. Mawson.

HAMMAKER IN THE TOILS

Paroled Prisoner Charged With Horse Stealing by Police.

WAR ON AGAINST AUTO SPEEDERS

Results in Affidavits Being Filed Against Five Local Owners.

Arthur C. Hammaker, who was only recently released on parole from the common pleas court for assault and robbery, is once more a prisoner in the county jail, having been bound over to the grand jury by Mayor Shook this morning on a charge of horse stealing, preferred by J. P. Patrick, a farmer living north of Lima. Hammaker's bond was fixed at $200, which he was unable to furnish.

Hammaker was arrested at Ft. Wayne last Saturday night, after the local authorities had sent word to neighboring cities and towns to keep a close watch for the man who stole a horse and buggy last Wednesday night on north Main street. The outfit belonged to Patrick, who lives near the state hospital grounds north of the city.

His description answered the description sent out from this city and the Ft. Wayne authorities held him until word was received from Lima. After satisfying himself that the right man was under arrest, Chief Earnst detailed Detective Heffner to go to Ft. Wayne after the prisoner. Hammaker balked at returning to Ohio without requisition papers, but later agreed to accompany the officer to Lima.

Patrick accompanied Heffner to Ft. Wayne and identified his property, which was returned to him. He is driving through today from Ft. Wayne to this city.

Hammaker, when arraigned before Mayor Shook this morning, protested his innocence, but the mayor considered the evidence sufficient to warrant his detention until the grand jury had an opportunity to investigate.

Hammaker was under sentence of 1117 days' imprisonment in the city workhouse for assault and robbery when he was paroled by order of the court. The crime of which he is now charged is punishable by a penitentiary sentence.

War Against Speeders.
War against automobile and motorcycle speeders has been renewed in earnest by Mayor Shook and Chief Earnst, because of the many complaints that have been received at police headquarters during the past week. The officials are somewhat handicapped in prosecuting the cases because of the fact that the 1912 license book has not yet been issued from the secretary of state's office.

To get the name of the offender it is necessary for the chief to write the automobile department at Columbus, giving the number and make of the car. This policy has been followed during the past week.

At the present time there are five affidavits on file at Mayor Shook's office, but the names of the accused are being withheld until an opportunity has been given the authorities to investigate.

The first of these, James L. Heath, the prominent local real estate man, appeared before the mayor this morning and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of speeding. He was fined $10 and costs, which he paid, and the case was concluded.

Heath told the mayor that he had no knowledge of the incident, as he was not in the car last Saturday, when the alleged offense was committed. He was of the opinion that a relative of his was driving the car at the time, and decided to pay the fine rather than go to trial. It was claimed by the police that the car was driven out west Market street last Saturday evening at a rate of speed in excess of that allowed by law.

Interfered With Officer.
Interference with Officer Heffner in the discharge of his duties landed Charles Williams behind the bars of the city prison yesterday afternoon, and cost him $1 and costs in the mayor's court this morning.

Heffner was detailed to investigate the complaint that there was a drunken man on south Main street, and he hurried to the scene on his motorcycle. As he was about to arrest the man, who proved to be C. H. Stanley, an old offender, Williams interfered. Heffner called another officer to his assistance, and both men were brought in.

Stanley was fined $5 and costs, as was his second offense.

George Roberts and Bert Shaw, two newcomers, were each fined $1 and costs for drunkenness, while Edw. Lofert and Charles Kanawil, regulars, drew the maximum fine of $5 and costs each.

F. E. Walling, a farmer living near Yukon, Mo., strongly recommends Foley's Honey & Tar Compound and says: "I have been advised by my family doctor to use Foley's Honey & Tar Compound for my children when they have a cough medicine needed. It always gives the best of satisfaction and I recommend it to others." Enterprise Drug Store.

PRINTED COPY OF REGULATIONS

Adopted By Civil Service Commission Sent to Safety Director Blank Yesterday.

Safety Director Blank has been furnished with a printed copy of the rules and regulations of the civil service commission, promulgated in July of last year. Shortage of funds in the department of the commission has prevented the printing of the rules until this late date. Blank has made several demands for a printed copy, and has repeatedly stated that he would not abide by the rules unless he was furnished with an authenticated copy.

It is now up to Blank to appoint a permanent captain of the police department, which position has been filled by Patrolman Charles McCoy every since Chief Earnst resigned the position to accept the post of chief. This appointment must now be made from the three men whose names are on the eligible list, Patrolmen Grant, Snyder and Bacombe.

The law gives the safety director ten days in which to act after he names have been certified to him, so that the appointment may not be made for a week or more. At the present time, Blank is laid up at his home, threatened with blood-poisoning, and he may not make the appointment until he is able to be at his office.

Copies of the rules and regulations were also distributed among the firemen and policemen of the city, so that each member of the two departments can be acquainted with the rules under which they are working.

CO-OPERATION ASSOCIATION

Was Organized Last Evening
ing at a Meeting Held at Lima House.

RETAIL DEALERS ARE ALL ELIGIBLE.

Endeavor Will be Made for Co-operation. One Aim Early Closing.

The Lima Retail Dealers' association was organized last evening at a meeting at the Lima House of some two dozen clothing and shoe merchants of this city. To the bettering of the interests of the retail merchant and his trade, to the making of the work along their lines more acceptable, and the hours more reasonable will be among the aims of this organization.

The meeting last evening was the outgrowth of a slowly growing sentiment along this line. It was agreed by all those present that the membership in the Lima Retail Dealers' association would not be limited to any one or two branches of trade, but that those engaged in the retail business along any line would be welcomed into the institution. P. W. Crawford was made chairman and D. L. Sherwood secretary.

A general discussion was the chief order of the business last evening, mostly involving the benefits of co-operation. A committee will soon wait on the Lima retailers in regard to their assistance. One of the projects of the organization will be the asking of all retail merchants in Lima to close their stores at five-thirty o'clock each evening except Saturday.

SIX AUTOISTS FINED TODAY.

SIX AUTOISTS

This Afternoon on Charge of Speeding.

Five more local autoists appeared before Mayor Shook this afternoon on a charge of speeding, and paid the usual toll of $10 and costs each assessed by the mayor. These, with the one fined this morning, and one affidavit not yet made public, make seven cases of speeding in the mayor's court today.

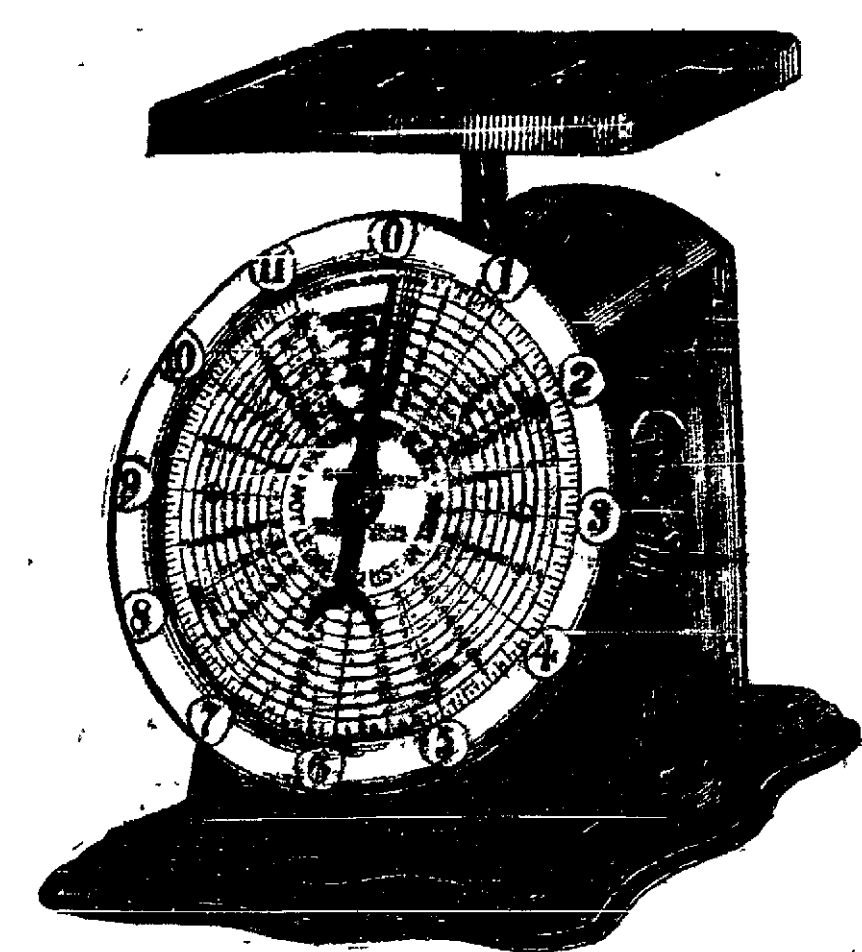

H. P. Maier, the north Main street piano dealer, the Cadillac Automobile Agency of west Market street, Wayne Dyer, so not ex-Mayor Dyer, R. H. Noss, and the White Mountain Creamery Company, were the five defendants this afternoon. J. L. Heath, the real estate agent, was arraigned this morning.

Mayor Shook reiterated the statement this afternoon that vigorous steps would be taken by the city authorities to break up the practice of speeding on the city's streets. He will continue to instruct the officers to arrest fast drivers until the practice is entirely stopped.

LIMA PHYSICIAN RESUMES PRACTICE

Dr. Bachmayer who has been sick with blood poison for the past ten weeks has sufficiently recovered to resume his practice. He was at the Lima hospital three different times during his illness and at times his recovery seemed doubtful but at present he is feeling fine and has been on the streets several days, shaking hands with his many friends who rejoice at his recovery.

NEUMAN & KETTLER

SUCCESSOR TO M'CLAIN

To be Elected at Meeting of School Board This Evening.

MANY NAMES MENTIONED.

Indications Are That a Democrat Will be Elected to Vacancy.

Judge A. D. Miller, J. W. Kilgore, Harry Thomas, Grant Kelley, George McHaffey, E. A. Dean, Dr. T. R. Terwilliger and John Risher are among the names most prominently mentioned as probable successors to Charles E. McClain, member of the Lima Board of Education, whose resignation will be presented to the board at its regular meeting to be held this evening at the high school building.

There is a possibility that a deadlock will result when the board attempts to elect a successor to McClain this evening. Neither faction of the board can muster enough votes to elect a man entirely to its choice, and the only course open to the Pence faction is to join forces with J. W. Gensel in the election of a democrat. It is rumored that Members Pence, Muntis and Faust will vote for Judge A. D. Miller, a democrat, thus insuring his election. At the present time Gensel is the only democrat on the board.

Pence is known to favor Harry Thomas, the north Main street grocer, but he will be powerless to bring about his election unless he receives the support of one man from the opposite faction on the board. George McHaffey is said to be the choice of the Federation of Women's clubs for the place. Dr. Terwilliger and E. A. Dean were candidates at the primary two years ago, but both failed of nomination. Terwilliger is a democrat, while Dean is a republican.

Should a deadlock ensue and continue for 10 days among the members of the board, the county commission will have the authority by law to make the appointment. In this event, the new member is sure to be a democrat, as the county board is composed of three democrats.

McClain's retirement will also cause a vacancy in the office of president, which position he now holds. Gensel can have the place if he so desires, as enough members have announced that they would support him to insure his election. It is said, however, that he prefers the clerkship of the board, which Muntis will soon resign, as the work conflicts with his business. Faust does not want the place, and Dr. Pence is not a candidate. It is not believed that either Rudy or Pence could land the place under the present conditions. This would leave the office of president open to the new member.

McClain's resignation it is said, is due to the fact that he is barred from bidding on city work so long as he holds an official position in the city government. He is a member of a firm which sells supplies for engines and boilers, and his membership on the board prohibits the firm from doing business with the city.

No other business of importance is scheduled to come up at the board this evening except the payment of the regular monthly bills.

COUNTY DADS IN QUANDARY

Commissioners Will Seek to Determine Wish of Majority.

CONTRACTORS WILL MAKE INSPECTION

That the Opinion of the Commissioners May be Corroborated.

The Allen county commissioners, accepting the sense of the meeting that was held at the Memorial hall on last Saturday, to wit, that two hundred and fifty thousand dollars is too great a sum to expend in repairing an old court house, and following the commendation that the repair bill be kept within the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, have invited four of the most prominent and leading contractors of the city to go with them in a thorough inspection of the present building. This will be done during the week, but the exact date has not been set. It is the firm belief of the commissioners that repairs that would in any manner be adequate or satisfactory can not possibly be done for one hundred thousand dollars, and it is to substantiate these claims, and to have their beliefs corroborated by the decisions of critics that the above inspection will be made.

It must be borne in mind that during the process of reconstruction, should this plan be adopted, it will be necessary to carry on the business of the county, that this business cannot be carried on in a building that is being extensively repaired; that there will be a great cost to move these offices; that some new quarters will have to be rented; and further, that if the appellate court is to be quartered here on the new floor, that an elevator system will have to be installed. Thus over one-fourth of a bond issue of one hundred thousand dollars would be devoted to these things. Further than this there will be a large amount of new equipment required, including new fixtures for an entirely new court, etc. It can readily be seen how much money would be left for the repairing alone. According to the belief of a great many, including the commissioners, this would be far insignificant.

It is a great regret of the commissioners that the meeting of last Saturday was ended so suddenly and with such confusion at the passing of the recommendation for a one hundred thousand dollar restriction on the repair proposition. It was the desire of those in control to ascertain the consensus of opinion in regard to the proposition of building a new building on an entirely new site. At present time this seems to the commissioners to be the reasonable thing to do, and at the same time they are anxious to learn whether this would meet with the approval of the majority of people.

Further, they are unwilling to propose to the people that the present building and location be sold, until something definite can be said in regard to the price to be received for it. This to a great many seems to be almost impossible until the lot and the present building are actually put on the market. Thus the county fathers are in a quandary.

One of the matters of greatest concern to us, said A. L. Fox to a Times-Democrat representative this morning, "is that the business men

THE WEATHER.
Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—Forecast for Ohio: Increasing cloudiness tonight followed by snow or rain in early morning or on Wednesday; rising temperature.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S VIEWS.
One of the most remarkable books ever issued is the volume containing the views and policies of Governor Woodrow Wilson. Coming just before his inauguration as president the book will be much consulted in the four years to come by those who want to know what the president thinks on number of things; for instance, on trusts, on monopolies, on finance; on the initiative, referendum and recall; on the restoration of equal opportunities to the people by preventing the big combinations of capital from illegally restricting competition. The president-elect has put forth a really valuable work which every American will feel impelled to know about. It is partly composed of address by Governor Wilson and it was edited and put together by William Bayard Hale, whose able literary work has brought him very rapidly before the reading public in the past few years.

Auditor of State A. V. Donahay has asked for legislation that will put the state's financial and accounting system on a real business basis. The loose business methods which he finds have been in vogue in the auditor of state's office invites wrong doing, in the opinion of Mr. Donahay.
The auditor says it is the plain intent of the law to make him the chief financial officer of the commonwealth, and yet the books of the department show only a portion of the receipts and expenditures. Mr. Donahay would make his office the base for all financial transactions and he would, if given authority and others co-operate, prepare records to account for every dollar collected and paid into the state treasury, also to show every dollar expended.

Mr. Donahay called attention to several state departments that operate without checking through his department, and said: "I charge no misapplication of funds, but I do insist that such methods are careless, invite wrong doing and are in violation of the intent of the law. Modern business concerns would not for a minute countenance a proceeding of this kind, and we should demand a policy that will show upon a minute's notice the exact condition of the people's treasury."

BLUE SKY LAWS.
In Kansas a state bureau passed upon all stocks and bonds which are to be offered for sale. The promoter must convince the head of this bureau that his business is legitimate, that he has actual values, that the lands, oil wells or mines which are to be developed do exist elsewhere than upon a neatly draughted map, that the invention or material which is to be marketed has some merit besides the friendliness of a smooth-tongued salesman.

The objection has been raised that such a bureau might prevent the manufacture of a worthy invention or delay the distribution of an article of immense benefit to mankind. That is true, for abuses creep into any institution and no commonwealth, however careful, can be guarded impregably against the action of the stupid and dull. But better an occasional wrong under the "blue sky" law than the chronic wrong and injury of stock swindling. One law might develop in such legislation. The state might be made to seem the guarantor of profits through stocks upon which it stamps its approval. But that will not occur unless the law is framed hastily and carelessly. We see no sign of it appearing in the Ohio measure.—Toledo Blade.

POSTAL SAVING BANKS.
The lamentations that greeted the inauguration of the postal saving banks have all changed to shouts of glee. Instead of a menace as shrewd business men were apt to think it would be, the institution has proved to be a blessing in disguise. The hoardings of years by those people who distrusted banks have been brought up out of stockings and other quite as precarious hiding places and placed with the government banks. In turn the government has placed the deposits in circulation and the whole business and industrial world has been benefited by the larger amounts of circulating money.

There is a limitation on the amount that can be deposited and financiers and business men are of the opinion that the amount that can be placed in the postal savings bank should be raised to a higher figure. The timid with money, deposit the maximum amount and then the rest goes back in the stockings, a cog in the way of commercial development. Be it ever so small it acts upon the smoothness of the great industrial system of the United States.—National Monthly.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION.
Business men of the country are now looking squarely at the business situation as it pertains to the coming season which will open up within a few weeks. The advent of spring, when the rigors of winter shall have passed will usher in new business in all branches. The general feeling is one of optimism, although in certain directions the reverse feeling exists. There is but little real ground for these pessimistic fears, and they will doubtless pass away as the season advances. The editorial writer of the Christian Science Monitor, published in Boston, and in an excellent position to keep a finger on the financial pulse in discussing this subject very aptly says: "Apprehension as to the future of business seems to increase the nearer the time approaches for the inauguration of a new president of the United States. There is a lamentable lack of confidence. In spite of the fact that consumptive demand is sufficiently heavy to keep the big industries in active operation for some months to come and probably without much slackening at any time, there is a feeling of pessimism in financial and commercial circles that seems difficult to shake off. The near settlement of the railroad firemen's wage dispute, the prospect of early peace in Mexico, improved European situation, large bank clearings, steady maintenance of railroad companies' gross earnings and continued heavy steel output certainly are factors which should encourage trade. In fact, if one were to make an inventory of the favorable conditions, it would not be difficult to believe that they more than outweigh the unfavorable."
"So far as the feature is concerned, if people were to focus their attention more upon the probability of big crops next season than upon the likelihood of a destructive tariff law which so many fear, business would very likely continue to ex-

Little Girl Whose Marvelous Psychic Powers Have Startled Scientists

BEULAH MILLER.
That Beulah Miller, the 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David F. Miller of Warren, R. I., has developed psychic powers that would spell fortune to any stage telepathist was clearly shown when Professor Hugo Munsterberg of Harvard University, who is regarded as the greatest psychologist in America, tested the child's ability recently. Without hesitation, Beulah gave the dates and denomination of coins which the professor concealed in his pockets, and correctly described cards which were selected from a pack. Beulah's wonderful gift was discovered while she was playing "old maid" with some of her little friends. Some one asked who had the "old maid" card, and Beulah promptly pointed out the person who held it. Mrs. Miller says that to her knowledge no one, either on her own or Mr. Miller's side of the family, possessed any ability to read mind.

and this is emphasized by the list of speakers who have been selected to make addresses. This includes the best known workers in both the rural life and good roads movements throughout the entire country.

Among these will be members of congress, in both the senate and house; highway commissioners of different states; officials of good roads organizations, including Jesse Taylor, president of the Ohio good roads federation and also those who are prominent in rural life work in various sections of the United States.
Dr. Washington Gladden, pastor of the First Congregational church, Columbus; W. O. Thompson, president of the Ohio State University; Governor Cox; Lieutenant Governor Hugh J. Nichols, and Speaker Swain of the house of representatives will be among the prominent men to represent Ohio.
The Catholic church is to take part in the deliberations of the congress and an address will be given by either Rt. Rev. James Joseph Hartley, D. D., of the Columbus diocese or some priest whom he will choose to speak in his stead.
Because of the close affiliations between "rural life" and "good roads" it is particularly fitting that both should be included in one congress at which a general expression of sentiment can be obtained.

DEPUTATION COMMITTEE

Meets With Gratifying Success in Towns Surrounding Lima.

STRIVE TO ENROLL 800 EARNEST MEN

Who, as Members of Laymen's Missionary Movement, Will Dine.

The executive committee that has in charge the Laymen's Missionary Movement convention this soon to be held in Lima, had an important meeting last evening in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Gramma, the chairman of the committee, received reports from each one of the seven sub-committees that have the various phases of the work in hand, and the members of the executive committee were especially pleased with the reports from the deputation committee, under whose direction seventeen towns in Allen and surrounding counties have been visited by Lima business men in the interests of the Laymen's convention. In each case meetings were arranged in advance by the committee and everywhere men have been registered to attend the Lima convention. In one town 50 men heard the Lima men in a specially called meeting and 50 per cent of those present registered and this town, Wapakoneta, and also Van Wert and Delphos are planning to provide special cars for their men to come to the convention. More than a hundred are already registered in towns other than Lima.

Among the Lima churches, where the work of registering the men is just beginning, Grace Methodist church held the lead last evening with more than 50 men enrolled. It is confidently expected that there will be at least 800 men registered for the convention and these will all dine together in Memorial hall the last evening of the convention.

All the sub-committees reported their work well in hand and immediately after the adjournment of the executive committee, the registration committee representing every church in Lima, had a meeting. In every church a special committee of from two to five men is working a plan of personal solicitation for registrations and several of the churches have as their goal "Register every man." This committee will be called upon Thursday to report to headquarters the progress of their work and another meeting will be held Saturday evening of this week.

Paul Ashton, alleged murderer of Samuel Meeks, was removed to the county jail late yesterday afternoon without bond to await the action of the next grand jury. Mayor Shook brought him over to the court of common pleas at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing held yesterday

Representing Ashton were Attor-

have been retained by the Ashton family to defend the youthful prisoner. City Solicitor Jackson had charge of the prosecution.

No evidence of importance was introduced at the preliminary hearing, the prosecution contenting itself merely with establishing the identity of Ashton as the probable assailant of the aged veteran and the fact that the old man's death was due to the injuries received in the assault.
None of the evidence which has been gathered by the police since the commission of the crime was made public.

H. C. Dixon, of Bluffton, Mrs.
Anna Lamphar, 313 South Central avenue, and Peter Fisher, of 313 South Central avenue, all eye-witnesses of the assault, were the main witnesses for the prosecution at the hearing yesterday afternoon. The three identified Ashton as the man who assaulted Meeks at the corner of Spring and Central avenue. Captain McCoy and Patrolman Stewart of the police department testified as to the condition in which Meeks was found when they arrived on the scene and also to his death which occurred in the ambulance on the way to the hospital.

Inquest Tomorrow.

Coroner Curtiss will hold the inquest at his office on south Main street tomorrow morning at 9.30 o'clock. At the inquest, the report of the autopsy held at the Whitley morgue Sunday morning, in which Drs. T. R. Thomas, E. G. Weadock, and E. G. Burton, physicians, and Dr. A. L. Jones, dentist, assisted the coroner will be made public, as well as all other matters which may have a bearing on the probable cause of Meeks' death.

Coroner Curtiss still maintains a sphinx-like attitude when questioned relative to his verdict, and reiterated his statement of yesterday that no information would be given out from his office until after the inquest.

It is quite probable, however, that, should the autopsy show that internal disorders played a part in the death of the murdered man, that the degree of the crime will be modified to the charge of manslaughter.
Conviction on this charge is punishable by a term of from one to twenty years in the state penitentiary.

The Meeks Funeral.
Funeral services for Meeks will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Perry chapel in Perry township, near where Meeks lived for several years before moving to Lima. The body was removed yesterday from the morgue to the Meeks residence at 715 Franklin avenue. Quite a number of relatives of Meeks from out of town have arrived to attend the obsequies. Interment will be made in Perry chapel cemetery.

MUSIC WORK OF AN ARTIST

Which Miss Gail Watson is Doing in Russia Under Leopold Auer.

AMERICAN PLAYER
AT BIG BENEFIT

Given for Hospital Fund—Will be Absent for One Year.

Miss Gail Watson, the talented violinist, who is in St. Petersburg, Russia, where she is a private pupil of Leopold Auer, violin instructor in the Imperial Conservatory of Russia, contributed to a concert held in St.
Petersburg the latter part of January. The concert was given as a benefit for a hospital and Miss Watson was the American representative. She gave three violin numbers, all delightfully rendered.

Miss Watson is in the Russian country to complete her education in music, having made a hurried trip to New York last fall in time to proceed to Europe to be in the class taught by the renowned instructor Miss Watson will remain about a year in Russia. She is delighted with her work and the progress being made under Director Auer.

Upon her return, friends may be sure they will hear her in recital and listen to the splendid efforts of her year's work. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Watson, of 574 West Spring street, coming from a family of whom all are talented musicians.

HATCHET WAS WEAPON USED

In an Assault Last Night.
Victim Just Escaped Death.

SKULL BONE WAS PIERCED BY BLOW.

Assailant Arraigned Before
Mayor This Morning, Pleaded Guilty.

Frank Fleming had a very narrow escape from death last night when he was struck over the head with a hatchet by Joe Galligan, a laborer, who for some reason seemed to have a grudge against his victim. That the man struck did not fall over dead in his chair seems almost a miracle. The rear part of his skull was fractured, and a point of the edge of the hatchet penetrated the skin and bone. No cause has yet been given for the assault. It was made in the kitchen of the Erie hotel, where both men are staying.
Fleming has been a lodger there for some time, whereas Galligan is a new arrival.

The victim says that he never saw his assailant previous to that time, and knew of no reason why he should have been so attacked. He was sitting at the table in the kitchen, playing a game of cards with one of the children of the O'Connell family. Mr. O'Connell is the proprietor of the hotel. He stepped into the kitchen just in time to see Galligan step up behind his victim and strike him with the sharp edge of the hatchet. O'Connell was unable to reach the assailant in time to prevent the blow. He was there an instant later, and before there was time for a second stroke of the hatchet he had floored Galligan.

He recovered the hatchet from the man, and then hurried to the Erie depot, where he located Officer Landfair. He brought the patrolman to the hotel, and the latter soon took both of the men to the police station, one to prefer charges against the other. The wound in Fleming's head was very serious, but at no time did it seem to have the better of the man. He did not fall with the receipt of the blow, and though he says his head swam for an instant he did not reel or appear greatly affected. The wound was dressed by Mrs. O'Connell, and he then accompanied the officer to the station, that he might take proper action against his assailant.

At police headquarters his head was again dressed, and a doctor was called to make an examination. The latter stated that there was no fracture nor crack of the skull bone but that the hatchet incision was the only injury.

It is thought that in striking the blow the handle or a part of the forearm of the assailant came in contact with the chair or the back of the victim as he leaned over, for the greatest part of the power of the blow was spent by the time the cutting edge of the hatchet struck the head. The lower point seems to have pierced the hat that Fleming was wearing at the time, and to have cut the hole in the head.

Arraigned before Mayor Shook this morning the man pleaded guilty to the charge that had been preferred against him. This was assault with intent to kill. In this class of cases the jurisdiction of the mayor comes to an end with the preliminary hearing or the arraignment.
The prisoner was bound over to the common pleas court and was given into the custody of the county sheriff pending the next sitting of the grand jury.

Barbers Praise Newbro's Herpicide

AS THE BEST REMEDY FOR THE

UNCLE SAM ATTACKS CHICAGO LABOR TRUST AS ILLEGAL COMBINE

Chicago, Feb. 25.—An alleged "labor trust" is attacked by the federal government in a civil suit filed here against local unions Numbers 9 and 134 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, engaged in a strike against the Postal Telegraph-Cable company.

As part of the labor war against the telegraph, the government charges officers and employees of the unions with combining and conspiring, through acts of violence and depredations to injure the Postal Telegraph wires to interfere with the transmission of government and commercial messages in interstate commerce. The alleged interference is declared to have been deliberate.

While restraint of interstate commerce is alleged, the Sherman law is not specifically mentioned in the government's bill of complaint, which generally declares that the defendants' alleged unlawful acts have violated the rights granted upon the constitution and law of the United States to the telegraph company and the senders of messages. The government asked that the defendants be enjoined from obstructing interstate and government messages over the Postal, from cutting, burning or otherwise injuring its telegraph lines and from interfering, by threats, intimidation, persuasion or force with employees or prospective employees of the company. Pending final hearing the petition pleads for a temporary injunction against the alleged unlawful acts.

The following are named as defendants:

International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local Unions Numbers 9 and 134; Martin J. Healy, Michael J. Boyle, William J. Sloan, W. N. Harris, E. M. Lamie, J. J. Elliott, W. Conrad, E. D. Shanks, G. Florian, and others, all of Chicago.

Labor trouble between the Postal and the electrical unions arose in September last, when, it is alleged, union officials insisted that the telegraph company should establish the "closed shop" policy. The company refused, it is added, because such a course would have necessitated the discharge of old and faithful employees not members of the union. Some of the defendants are alleged to have informed the Postal company that if they refused to agree they would call a strike. At this stage, when a strike was imminent, the government says the telegraph company on October 15 discharged employees who were members of the unions and supplied their places with non-members.

Threats against the officers and employees of the telegraph immediately followed, it is charged, and acts of violence began to be committed daily in Chicago against the company, the property, whereby telegraph lines were cut, injured or destroyed by the use of acids or other means, interfering with and crippling the company's services. These alleged acts of depredation are said to have been repeated almost daily the over a year ago Galbreath became a candidate for national committee of Oklahoma, the only office he ever asked for or wanted. He was opposed by several strong candidates, among the number John B. Doolla, state game and fish warden, who had been assistant treasurer of the national campaign committee in 1908 and who was regarded as about the strongest man in the state. Galbreath was placed in nomination, and by the time the recording speeches were finished all other candidates had withdrawn and Galbreath was named by acclamation.

"Besides Galbreath there are quite a number of other former residents of Ohio who have accumulated great wealth in Oklahoma. It is said and is perhaps true that excepting the states immediately adjoining this, that Ohio has more residents in Oklahoma than any other state in the Union, and it is certain that in the development of the state Ohio has furnished far more than its proportion of the funds.

"Among the richest and best known of the former Ohioans is W. H. Milliken, who lived and operated in oil around Lima, Ohio, long before coming to Oklahoma, which was 10 or 12 years ago. Charles Ludwig, Dan Kelley, Charles Richardson, A. L. Lowell and George Wyvell, all from around Marietta, have made much money and are among the big operators in the Oklahoma oil industry. M. Dorn, also of Marietta, is president of one of the biggest concerns in the state. Practically all of the above men, except Galbreath, were in reasonably good financial condition before coming to Oklahoma, but they have added many fold to their former wealth and all of them have been public spirited and enterprising along other lines than the oil industry.

"If this city George Barnes, who died last year, was one of the prominent factors in making a great city of this Indian village. Charles N. Haskell, of Ottawa, Ohio, and George Barnes, of Toledo, perhaps did more to make a city of Muskogee than any other two men. Haskell was a builder, a promoter and a railroad expert, and Barnes was a rich man and willing to put up for any proposition that looked good to him. He was at the time of his death last year president of the Commercial National Bank of Muskogee.

"While former residents of Ohio now residing in Oklahoma have been following commercial pursuits many of them have been active in politics, and all of them have taken a lively interest in public affairs of all kinds. The first governor of the state was Charles N. Haskell, of Ottawa, Ohio, and in the constitutional convention and in the first and all subsequent legislatures there have been among the leaders men who formerly resided and received their training in Ohio.

"In Oklahoma City, Shawnee, Enid and all the other cities and towns of the state there are men from Ohio assisting in the work of progress, and there is hardly a school in the state that has not one or more teachers who were either educated in Ohio or who formerly resided in that state."

COLUMBUS GROVE.

Columbus Grove, O., Feb. 25.—The remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Crawford Light, wife of Perry A. Light, of Lima, were brought here Sunday and taken to the home of her father, Benjamin F. Crawford. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Ralph Kohr. Interment was made at Truro. Mrs. Light's infant was interred in the same grave with the mother who gave her life for it, one casket holding the remains of both. Mrs. Light's former wife was a sister of the deceased and the sudden death of both, has caused great sorrow in the family. By the former marriage, of which Maude Crawford Light was the mother, there remain two children and Elizabeth Crawford Light also leaves two little ones.

The third number of the lecture course was given last evening, Noah Beithar appearing as impersonator and reader. The number pleased greatly and Day's hall was filled for the event.

Local churches will take part in the Men's Missionary movement and Columbus Grove will be largely represented at all the sessions, to be held in Lima, and at the banquet on Friday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Core left this morning for Columbus, where she will spend some time with her sisters, Mrs. Marvel Wells and Miss Bessie Core.

Miss Frances Carter, who is teaching in the Washington schools, spent Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Carter.

Mrs. George W. Core had for her guest the latter part of the week, Mrs. Alice Hill, of Lafayette.

Mrs. Henry F. Light is in Denver, Colo., called there by the serious illness of the children of her sister, Mrs. E. E. McLaughlin.

Mrs. David Hammond has returned from a visit with her children in Lima.

DELPHOS.

Friday afternoon the 15th annual Farmers' institute meeting was held at the city hall. The program was as follows: First after the singing

SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

Two Women Tell How They Escaped the Surgeon's Knife by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Swarthmore, Penn. — "For fifteen years I suffered untold agony, and for one period of nearly two years I had hemorrhages and the doctors told me I would have to undergo an operation, but I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am in good health now. I am all over the Change of Life and cannot praise your Vegetable Compound too highly. Every woman should take it at that time. I recommend it to both old and young for female troubles." — Mrs. EMILY SUMMERSGILL, Swarthmore, Pa.

Baltimore, Md. — "My troubles began with the loss of a child, and I had hemorrhages for four months. The doctors said an operation was necessary, but I dreaded it and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The medicine has made me a well woman and I feel strong and do my own work." — Mrs. J. R. FICKING, 1230 Sargent St., Baltimore, Md.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

"America" by the audience. J. F. Gordon spoke on the subject, "Live Stock." Mrs. Cora A. Thompson spoke on "Women's Influence in the Future of American Agriculture." The audience then sang "America." Miss Breta Ford followed with a pleasing reading. Then M. C. Thomas had as his subject "The Corn Crop," and after a piano solo by Harold Ford, a discussion on "The Neglect of Orchards" was opened by Dr. T. P. Jackson. The program of the afternoon closed with a piano duet by Ford and Whittington.

The session Friday evening was arranged as a banner meeting in the way of special music and other entertainments at the Jefferson street school auditorium. The new West Side Orchestra furnished music during the evening and their renditions were of a high class and well given. The meeting of the evening was opened by a masterly address on the subject, "Time, Chance and the Farmer," by M. C. Thomas. After two selections by the orchestra, Mrs. Cora A. Thompson gave an address on the subject, "The Magnitude of Modern Rural Education." Miss Anna Juddins gave a humorous reading to the delight of the audience after which Miss Margaret Stalkamp, Chas. Griffith and Roy De Haven gave a piano, violin and cornet selection. The program closed with a selection by the orchestra.

The Saturday morning session was the most interesting one of the institute. Miss Ruth King favored the audience with a piano selection, after which President Hedrickson delegated a committee to escort A. P. Sandles, secretary of the state board of agriculture to the room. Mr. Sandles came to the city to address the institute and when he entered the hall a shout of cheer came from the audience for the state secretary of agriculture.

Prof. E. J. Kiefer's pupils, of District No. 6, Washington township, gave a vocal selection and responded to an encore. M. C. Thomas again addressed the audience on the subject, "The Live Stock Farmer." A. P. Sandles followed with an address. Miss Ruth King favored the audience with a piano selection at the close of Mr. Sandles' speech. J. F. Gordon spoke on the subject, "Poultry." A discussion in which Prof. I. F. Matteson, Rev. Otis Harter and others participated, followed this address. The pupils of Mr. Kiefer again delighted the audience with one of their selections closing the morning session.

At the opening of the Saturday afternoon session the resolutions and nominating committees made their reports.

The decision for the debate between the Delphos and Van Wert pupils, held Friday afternoon, was given in favor of the Delphos affirmative side in Delphos and the affirmative side in Van Wert. Malda Lampe, a Glenn Clark had been selected to represent the affirmative side in Delphos while Ernest Slinger and R. L. Leslie argued the negative side for Van Wert in this city. Clair E. Jones and George Miehles composed the local debating team which went to Van Wert to argue the question from the negative side while the affirmative was presented by John Graves and Marshall Webster, of Van Wert.

Mrs. Conrad Lindeman has returned to her home in Perry, Okla., after spending a five weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. E. S. Odenweller.

A party of Delphos people including Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Leiflich, George Stalkamp, Mrs. Anna Perkins and daughter, Helen, Miss Elizabeth Werner, Mr. Arnold King, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Feltz, visited the opening of the Lima club on Saturday evening.

The ladies of the Sorosis entertained their husbands last Friday evening at the large and beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Reed. It has been the annual custom of the ladies to go to a play, but last Friday was the first time the gentlemen were given the pleasure of assisting at this enjoyable event. Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors" was the play selected for this year. It was beautifully staged and acted with skill. Between the acts, Miss Lucile Ruel, a brilliant pianist, entertained the audience with her selections. Later a dainty lunch was served in which the idea of spring time was beautifully carried out by the dainty ices in the form of Easter lilies, cakes ornamented with candy violets, crystallized fruits, almonds and coffee. The tables bore pretty decorations of daffodils.

Mrs. Willis Jenkins spent Saturday in Lima.

Postmaster E. E. Truesdale was in Lima Saturday on a business trip. Mrs. Cole, with his father from Michigan, went to Columbiana City Friday to attend the funeral of the senior Mr. Cole's father.

M. R. Ford, who has been confined to his home for about a week with a severe attack of grippe is again able to be out.

The Delphos Home Telephone company purchased the Aner property on east Third street.

Mr. Mueller, of the Mueller Implement, bought the Steale stock farm. This farm is considered the best in this section.

S. Jones Phillips, of Kennett Square, Pa., G. F. Manfort, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and C. L. Moore, of Godfrey, Ont., Canada, attended the stockholders' meeting of the Lima Contractors Supply company on Friday, February 21st, 1913. It is the intention of this company to materially increase its capacity as it is impossible for them at the present time to take proper care of their business with its present capacity. This company promises to be one of the largest manufacturers of sectional culvert pipe in the world within the next few years.

Mr. A. C. Feltz, of the Rapid Bottle Washer company, was in Ft. Wayne last week on business.

Mrs. Baumgartner, living about three miles west of Delphos, who has been very sick for some time is much improved.

Mrs. Sylvester Wahmhoff, of S. Franklin street, who was operated upon for appendicitis, is getting along very nicely.

BEAVERDAM.

Miss Elizabeth and Julia Danner went to Toledo Sunday morning, where they will spend several days as the guest of their brother Edward Danner and family.

Miss Caroline Ransbottom was the guest of Mrs. Irwin Sawmiller at Lima, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Clark were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ackerman near Ada.

Miss Shull returned to her home at Lima Thursday, having been called here by the illness of Mrs. Mary J. Shull.

Mrs. Emmeline Clay returned home Wednesday after spending the winter with relatives in the southern part of the state. She has improved in health.

Misses Wava Prosser and Okla Weaver were in Bluffton Friday evening in attendance at a basketball game between Lima and Bluffton.

Miss Alice Romey, of Lima, was the guest of her grand mother, Mrs. Kate Hesser, Saturday and Sunday.

Glen Burden was the Sunday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Burden.

Mrs. John Mort and children, of near Lima were the guests of Mrs. Dan Mort and Mrs. Orval Young several days of last week.

Mrs. Nathan Lewis and Mrs. Mary J. Cotner went to Lafayette Thursday where they are spending a few days with relatives.

Mrs. Howard Clark and sister, Miss Alazada Stoner were the guests of friends at Lima, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lewis went to Toledo Saturday, where they spent several days with relatives.

Oklahoma Indebted To Former Lima Men For Rapid Advance

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, in writing a review of the financial and political operations throughout Oklahoma wherein Ohio men have given of their best to the new country and received in return much of her valuable bounty, mentions several who are well known former citizens of Lima.

"About a quarter of a century ago," says the writer, "Robert Galbreath, then barely of age, left his home in Mt. Sterling, Ohio, with his eyes turned toward the great southwest. Young Galbreath at this time had little more than a goodly amount of nerve and pluck and a strong physical constitution.

"About noon on the second day of March this same Robert Galbreath will pass through the little city of Mt. Sterling in a special car headed for the inauguration of President-elect Wilson, a millionaire oil operator and as national committee man from Oklahoma, the head of the democratic state organization.

"Galbreath is trying to arrange a stop for his train at Mt. Sterling, if only for a few minutes, in order that he may meet and greet again the old friends of his boyhood and young manhood. Any way, the train will stop at Columbus, only a short way from Mt. Sterling, and the wait there will be from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 5 o'clock. It is intended to give Mr. Galbreath a great ovation, so friends from his old home write him.

"The life and history of Robert Galbreath reads stranger than most romances. In the mad rush for homes, when Oklahoma was thrown open to settlers, April, 1889, young Galbreath was one of the homeseekers and, mounted on a small western pony, about all he had, made the run and squatted on a claim near Oklahoma City, which afterward became valuable. Galbreath engaged in real estate business in Oklahoma City and with varied success.

"At times he would be in good shape and again he would be broke. Things ran on this way until the opening up of the Glen-pool oil field, near Tulsa, Okla., in which Galbreath and a New Yorker by the name of Chelsoy had joined hands and were drilling wells. They had expended all they had and all they could borrow before success came to them, and it is said that their hands had been paid nothing for more than six weeks when the first well showed with a production of 200 barrels a day. Since then it has been comparatively easy sailing.

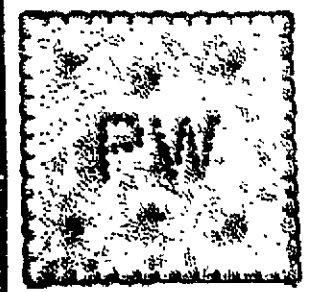

"In addition to having great investments in the Oklahoma oil fields Robert Galbreath has much real estate at Tulsa and other points in Oklahoma. He is president and principal owner of a big brick plant, and is president and director in a number of other enterprises. He is a great man for developments of any sort, and will gladly put in his money if he thinks well of any proposition placed before him.

"Galbreath is and has always been a strong democrat, and has at all times taken an active interest in the success of democratic nominees and is a liberal contributor to all democratic campaign funds. A lit-

ALLEGED MURDERS ARRESTED IN LIMA ON TRIAL IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Eight jurors were obtained today in the trial of Charles Cramer, alias Conway, the circus clown and high diver who with his wife is charged with the murder of Sophia Singer, a Baltimore heiress, in a rooming house here last October. The state indicated its intention of demanding the death penalty.

Cramer and his wife and other two murder and were arrested at Lima.

SEVEN YEARS OF LABOR WAR

May be Ended Through the Efforts of Iron Workers' Union.

CLIMAX REACHED BY USE OF DYNAMITE

Ending in Criminal Prosecution of Iron Workers' Officials.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 25.—Possible methods of ending the strike of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers which has continued for seven years against "open shop" contractors were discussed at the association's annual convention today.

President Frank M. Ryan reported the union was forming plans to treat with the contractors looking toward a settlement. Most of the "open shop" contractors are members of the National Erectors' Association.

It was to promote this strike, it was charged at the dynamite conspiracy trial here last December, that John J. McNamara, then secretary of the union, resorted to the use of explosives. President Ryan and 32 other union officials were convicted of conspiracy in connection with the plots.

The suggestion for a possible settlement was made by Ryan at a secret session of the convention. Afterward he stated that the plan had not developed to the extent that a conference between union officials and the contractors had been arranged. Ryan and ten other delegates who are attending the convention were recently released from the Leavenworth penitentiary on bonds. So far the convention has been devoted to preliminary business.

Attorney John L. Martin of St. Louis, failing to obtain a continuance, withdrew from the case. He desired a continuance because as sergeant-at-arms of the democratic national committee it was necessary, he said, for him to go at once to Washington to take part in arranging for the inauguration of President-elect Wilson.

That Francisco Madero Was Not the Victim of a Federal Plot.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Eight hundred and eighty-four men and 37 officers of the twenty-seventh infantry will leave Fort Sheridan for Galveston this evening, the first of three trains which are to transport them leaving at 7 o'clock, the others at short intervals.

Preceding the departure of the first troop train Major General William H. Carter, commanding the second division, will depart for Galveston over the Illinois Central with his staff.

Lieutenant Colonel Beecher B. Ray is checking up the general movement of the troops toward Galveston. His reports show that the movement is going forward without mishap.

Leave Fort Russell.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 25.—The second of the four sections in which the eleventh infantry under command of Colonel Arthur Williams will be transported to Galveston left Fort D. A. Russell at 9 o'clock today. General Clarence R. Edwards, who was last night directed to take command of the sixth bridge in the present affair instead of proceeding to the Philippines under earlier orders, is making hasty preparations to start with the troops.

Colonel is Wary.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 25.—Colonel David De La Fuente, appointed minister of communications in the Huerta provisional cabinet arrived today from the rebel camp below Columbus, N. M. He will proceed directly to Mexico City.

"Before accepting the position I will see what is to be offered the revolutionists of the north," Fuente said today. "We want peace but we will see first what will be offered to make peace secure."

Younger Madero Collapses.

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 25.—Evaristo E. Madero, whose elder brothers, Francisco and Gustavo Madero were killed in the overthrow of the Madero administration in Mexico believe that the surviving members of his family will seek refuge in the United States. Evaristo who obtained his degree from the state agricultural college at Cornell last week, is confined to his room in the Spanish-American Club, having collapsed under the weight of the tragic events in Mexico City. He has wired to his younger brother Carlos who is studying at St. Joseph's Academy, near Milwaukee, to join him here at once, and the latter is supposed to be on his way east today.

The two young men, the youngest members of the Madero family, will hold council as to what they shall do. Both have waited in vain for some word from their father and their brother's widow, but all they have learned has been in press dispatches and their plans are all as sea. Evaristo has been in such an excited and hysterical condition since the news that fellow members of the club have been remaining with him day and night.

Criminally Careless

Washington, Feb. 25.—Now that the first shock of the tragic death of Madero and Suarez has passed over, influenced largely by the reassuring reports from Ambassador Wilson and his appeal to the American people to suspend judgment in the matter, officials here are beginning to accept the official version of the affair. Unquestionably they believe great carelessness was exhibited in failing properly to protect the prisoners, but that offense, it is pointed out, is less than a deliberate murder plot.

Ambassador Wilson will be permitted to continue to exercise his own discretion in dealing with the new government and some satisfaction is derived from his report that not only is the new government very friendly toward the United States but that it has shown a disposition to meet reasonable requests for the protection of American interests in Mexico, which were to a large degree ignored by the Madero administration.

Colquhitt Meditates.

The threatened dispatch of Texas ambassador by Governor Colquhitt into Mexico is not expected to materialize; the governor himself, it was pointed out here today, would lay himself open to a charge of violation of the national neutrality laws which provide severe punishment for anyone organizing and forwarding a hostile expedition into the territory of a foreign state with which the United States is at peace. The law recognizes no differences between the governor of a state and any other citizen; it simply maintains the right of the national government and especially the legislative branch as the sole authority competent to make war and the sending of an armed force into Mexico would constitute such an act.

Much Exaggerated.

Brownsville, Texas, Feb. 25.—Today's investigation of rumors that Americans had been threatened in Matamoros, Mexico, last night, showed that the stories circulated were much exaggerated. The military commander in Matamoros, based on Mexican residents of the city to maintain his soldiers as protection against bandits. Americans, however, were not molested.

While the rumors were in circulation last night, Texas state troops were ordered to the border.

Diaz Influence Revived.

Mexico City, Feb. 25.—The revival of the Diaz influence in Mexico is indicated by an order issued by Provisional President Huerta today that all portraits of former President Porfirio Diaz be restored to the places in public buildings from which they were removed by Madero. Several large pictures of the old dictator were replaced immediately in the corridors and halls of the national palace. The new cabinet ministers, anticipating the presidential order, had already ordered pictures of Porfirio Diaz hung on the walls of their various departments.

Texas Ranch Looted.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Senator Morris Shephard, of Texas, today made representations to the state department about what he considers the unprotected condition of parts of the Texas-Mexican frontier. Senator Shephard recently sent telegrams to the Texas county judges along the Rio Grande river from El Paso to Brownsville, and his statement to Secretary Knox today was based upon the replies. They contended for the need of more troops in two extended stretches of territory, one of about 300 miles between Brownsville and Laredo, and the other of almost as great length between Del Rio and El Paso. It was represented that there had been much looting along the upper region and in one case a Texas ranch 50 miles from the border had been raided within the last few days.

One thousand troops the senator said were required to protect that city. It was believed that not so many would be necessary along the lower Rio Grand.

LIMA'S 1913 AUTO SHOW GREATEST OF THEM ALL

Local Dealers Vie With One Another for Excellence of Displays.

MEMORIAL HALL
PLACE OF BEAUTY.

Autos, Auto Accessories,
Auto Oils Will be There in Abundance.

Next Thursday, February 27, marks the opening of the third and greatest automobile show ever held in Lima, and will be one of great interest to motor car lovers and owners in this part of the state.

There will be an exhibition in Memorial hall all modern motor-driven machines from the small motorcycle to the great mammoth trucks.

Great credit is due the automobile dealers' association in arranging this show for it not only shows progressiveness on the part of the dealers alone but is a great big boost for Lima, placing her in the ranks of cities much larger and shows the progressive spirit of the entire population.

In this show will be some of the most luxurious pleasure cars ever placed on the market; differing from the cars of 1912 in that they are more roomy, richer upholstering and more accessible for the driver.

The small and inexpensive cars will be much in evidence and many of them have taken on the appearance of the more expensive ones, and also insuring much less trouble in the motors than has been heretofore experienced in all classes of cars.

In the commercial car you will find those of great power and capable of carrying many tons.

There is also the small delivery wagon which can be operated at a very small expense.

Valuable Improvements. While from an outside appearance the 1913 car shows very little improvements over that of last year, but when you come to the more practical parts you find there have been many material changes. The body being larger, making the car more roomy and comfortable, the upholstery is more luxurious, while the motors have been greatly improved upon, reducing motor trouble to a minimum. Many of the cars have been fitted with the left-hand position steering wheel while others are equipping their cars with either right or left positions, thus enabling the buyer to get just what he desires along this line.

The lighting system has been much improved upon by the use of electricity so that the driver can light his car while it is in motion.

Electric self-starters have been installed in many machines, thus avoiding trouble in starting the motor. In fact every automobile manufacturing concern has endeavored to make their cars long-lived, easy of operation and safe.

"Make no mistake" insist on Perfection. When you purchase for a quarter, or 10c per lb., at your grocer's.

Health Warning. Chilled and wet feet result in congesting the internal organs, and in inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, with rheumatic twinges and pain in back, generally follow. Use Foley Kidney Pills. They are the best medicine made for all disorders of the kidneys, for bladder irregularities, and for backache and rheumatism. They do not contain habit forming drugs. Tonic in action, quick in results. Enterprice Drug Store.

NOTICE.

Captain McRae will give an address at the Epworth M. E. church this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Washington, Feb. 25.—It will cost the government $186,000 to keep the national law-makers cool during the coming summer, according to the report of Elliott Woods, superintendent of the capital, who is arranging for the refrigerating system for the senate and house chambers.

Of the $72,000 appropriated at the last session of congress for this purpose $32,000 already has been expended for ice plants to cool the office buildings and capitol kitchen.

The $40,000 remaining will not begin to cover the cost of cooling the senate and house chambers, says Mr. Woods, and he recommends an appropriation of $150,000 for further refrigeration. He estimates that the total cost of the work will be $186,000. It is not believed that any difficulty will be experienced in obtaining the additional appropriation because senators and congressmen recall vividly the hot period of last session.

SCHOOL CHILDREN ASSIST FIREMEN

In Putting Out Grass Fire on the Old Holmes Farm Early This Afternoon.

Pupils of the Reese avenue school building joined with the members of the central and south side fire departments in putting out a grass fire which spread over about three acres of the old Holmes farm, located in the extreme south eastern end of the city. The young lads were of invaluable assistance to the fire fighting brigade and enjoyed the experience immensely.

A still alarm was telephoned into the central station about 11.30 o'clock this afternoon, and Chief Mack ordered out both departments. When they arrived, the fire was burning at a rapid rate, and threatened to spread over the entire farm. Armed with brooms and other apparatus, the firemen and school children set about to put out the fire, and before many minutes, had succeeded in checking the spread of the flames. The damage was slight, being confined entirely to the weeds and grass which covered a portion of the farm.

The origin of the fire is a mystery, but it is believed to have caught from sparks from a neighboring house or railroad engine.

A False Alarm. The north side equipment and the aerial truck from the central station answered an alarm sent in from McKibben and Union streets about eight o'clock last evening, which turned out to be a false one. Chief Mack made an earnest endeavor to locate the practical joker, but was unsuccessful.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Bert Crossin, 31, painter, Lima, and Emma E. Hurst, 20, waitress, Lima. Squire Holmes.

MRS. COFFEY PASSED AWAY

Died Last Evening at Home of Family on North Main Street.

NEVER RECOVERED
FROM ACCIDENT.

Was Thrown While on City
Car on Main Street,
Last November.

Mrs. Mary Coffey, the wife of William Coffey, of 1004 north Main died after a serious illness of several weeks. Mrs. Coffey had never completely recovered, it is said, from the effects of an injury she sustained last fall when on board one of the city cars. It is claimed that her death last night was caused by these injuries.

Mrs. Coffey was on board a Main and Kibby car, which had stopped in front of the market house in order that she might alight. She had risen from her seat and was walking toward the rear vestibule of the car when it was struck by another car. This was a depot car which had come up in the rear and had not succeeded in coming to a stop. Mrs. Coffey was thrown heavily to the floor of the vestibule and against the controller, in such a manner that she was severely injured in the side. She sustained the fracture of three ribs, bruises, and internal injuries. It is these latter that are said to have ultimately caused her death.

Mrs. Mary Coffey was born in County Carow, Ireland, in the year 1858. Here she spent her early youth, but she came to this country young, when her parents removed here. She was married to William Coffey after her arrival in this country. She is survived by the bereaved husband and seven children: Mrs. F. L. Van Pelt, of Detroit; Margaret, Ella and Catherine Coffey and James and John Coffey, all of this city. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

STATE EXAMINER SUBMITS REPORT.

No Criticisms Offered as to Methods Employed in Lima Water Works Office.

City Solicitor Jackson has received a copy of the report of State Examiner McGuire submitted to the state auditor on the result of his examination of the books and records of the Lima city water works department. The department is highly commended in the report for the manner in which the business of the department is being conducted, and there is no criticism offered of the method employed in the office.

McGuire concluded his examination of the office a few weeks ago, having been sent here by the state accounting department when Director Morris and Secretary Burkhardt succeeded F. E. Harnan and Earl Rohn, respectively.

PUJO COMMITTEE WINDS UP PROBE OF MONEY TRUST.

Washington, Feb. 25.—A final meeting of the house money trust committee for the submission of proof was called for today with the committee prepared to rush proceedings in their desire to get its report to the house this week. A chart, embracing all of the testimony elicited by the committee as to the alleged concentration of money and credit in the hands of certain New York firms, was to be presented by the committee's statisticians. A supplemental chart embracing the financial institutions of New York, Boston and Chicago was also to be presented. These charts will show in detail what the committee in its report will characterize as the "money trust" for which it has been searching.

Immediately after today's brief hearing the committee was to resume consideration of the report framed by counsel Samuel Untermyer. Chairman Pajo believes that the Untermyer report will be adopted practically in its entirety, and that the committee will complete its consideration today. He expects a unanimous report from the committee to be submitted to the house probably Friday.

TWO MASKED MEN ROB AGED COUPLE OF MUCH MONEY.
